Mr. Bunley
Bath, Ontario.

Dear Sir,

In April of this year I wrote Mr. Ross Laughlin of Williamsburg Mass asking for information on how to proceed in tracing my ancestry on the Bogart side of my family. In writing he gave a number of sources among which was your name. I have quite a few cousins living in Ontario who know no little on the matter. John Harkness in his history of Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Counties states that the Bogarts were early day settlers of Dundas County.

Perhaps you will be able to help me or may not be. Or you might be able to refer me to someone that can. I will put down the little on Peter Bogart who was my mother's father that I know. He was a farmer, school teacher, and operated Chesterville's first General Store. He and his wife Jane the daughter of Joseph Edgerton had five children.

The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are determined by the laws of the theory of the structure of the atom. This is a circular argument, but it is a necessary one, for the laws of quantum mechanics are the only laws that can describe the structure of the atom.

Peter Bogart was born in 1837 and died in Chesterville in March of 1901.

In the census of 1871 his nationality was given as German and his religion as Methodist Episcopal. His wife Jane was born in 1839 and died in Chesterville in 1912.

Emily was my mother and died in Feb 1909 in a hospital in Ottawa of Cancer.

Simon Bogart was a farmer who lived near Morewood Ontario. Evidently Peter and Simon had a number of brothers and sisters, none now way of knowing who they were.

Yours sincerely would like to know who the father and Mother of Peter and Simon Bogart was. Where they lived and possibly their parents names with date ect.

Evidently they lived quite close to Chertsville as the daughter Norma said once she visited with her father's parents and traveled by Bagque, that was before the Canada Pacific R. R. was in operation. It may have been that they lived near Centerville Ontario as in 1861 one Bogart was a Mail Carrier there and one Giles Bogart was a Magistrate or peace officer there.

BOGART.

Personal Notes.

The Bogarts.

The Bogarts.--Two families of the Bogarts came with the pioneers, Gilbert and Abraham his son. They were from Tapaan on the Hudson River, and were of the Knickerbockers. They settled in the fourth concession north of Hay Bay. Gilbert must have been an old man at the time, and is said to have lived to be over a hundred years old. His son Abraham married a Lazier and she lived to be 102 years. They reared a large and respectable family, but none of the name now reside in the township. Lewis L. Bogart was chairman of the Centennial Celebration Committee in Adolphustown in 1884. Three sons, David, Abraham and Gilbert, became large lumbermen and important business men in Belleville. Gilbert Bogart, for forty years postmaster at Napanee, is a great grandson of Gilbert first. So is Dr. David P. Bogart, ex-Mayor of Whitby. So is the Rev. Dr. G. M. Meacham, now a well known Canadian Missionary in Japan. The sons of Abraham were all successful business men and the descendants are widely scattered over the Province. They were Methodists. One of the sons of Abraham was among the nine young people drowned near the old Methodist church in 1819.

my mother's grandfather, E. Whitworth, born 1809 at Edwardsburg, married Laura Bogart, Newville, Ont.
If you are interested in any Dutch families from the Hudson River area, the book on "Dutch Houses" gives a great deal of detail. Unfortunately there is nothing on the Dorlands (or the Bogards) though some of them lived there. In fact, John Bogardt, a direct descender of mine, at age 94, on his way to visit his grandchildren near Beckman, broke through the ice on the Hudson River, & was drowned, 1780.

99. In 1633 the first church was erected on the island of Manhattan. It was built on Broad Street & was a small, frail wooden building. The first Dominie was the Rev. Everardus Bogardus. He came from Holland with the celebrated Wanter Van Twiller. The Dutch & the Huguenots, as well as the Pilgrims, brought the church, the schoolmaster, & their bibles with them. They erected a dwelling for the Rev. Mr. Bogardus to reside in. This was the first parsonage built in America. This first minister in New Amsterdam met with a sad end. After spending some years in the new world, in returning to his native land, he, with eighty-one others, was lost off the coast of Wales. The Bogarts are probably descended from this pioneer minister, he having left children behind him in America, or some near connection. On the south side of Hay Bay lived Andrew & John Embury, & the first family of the Bogarts of Canada, descendants of the first Moravian minister to America.
The grave is marked by a stone with a carving of the Dutch ship in which Jan Gerritse Dorlant came from Holland. (The Spotted Cow)

163. The Bogardus family tie in with the Rev. Everardus Bogardus who married in 1638 a Dutch woman, Annette Jané Webber, born in Holland.
The Bogardus family consisted of William, Cornelius, Jonas & Peter.

224. Anneke Jans was born in Holland about 1600 & died in Albany March 19th, 1663. Her first husband was Roeloff Jansen, who died about 1634.
In 1638 she married the Reverend Everardus Bogardus. After his death, in 1647, Anneke Jans owned the Bogardus-Ten Broek House, formerly at Albany, New York.

171. Abraham L. Bogart is a descendant of one of the oldest Dutch families on this continent. As early as 1689 we find one Jacob Vanden Bogart, with others, petitioning the good people of Albany, & later, 1750-60, the name of Bogart appears in connection with the census returns of New York city. The Bogarts came from Jappan town, near New York, to Canada on the conclusion of the war, with a number of other U.E. Loyalists, & settled on the 4th concession of Adolphustown, where many descendants of the family still reside, his mother living to the great age of 102 years. Abraham L. Bogart was born in Adolphustown, & has resided in Belleville for a number of years, removing to Hungerford, where he owns a large tract of valuable land. He is principally engaged in building & farming, & erected some time ago at considerable expense a saw mill on the splendid water privilege of -creek, where large quantities of raw material have been prepared for the market.

225. The Bogart family set sail from Amsterdam in 1663 on a ship called "Spotted Cow", to settle on Long Island. Jan Louwe Bogart took up residence in the town of New Harlem, where he was one of the thirty original patentees, named as a member of the Corporation of the Town of New Harlem. He was chosen as a magistrate in 1675. Shortly after his arrival in New Amsterdam the colony passed into British hands, to become New York. Later on, the family moved a short way up the Hudson River to the little town of Tappan. Similarly the Dorlands, represented by Jan Gerritz Dorlant, arrived even earlier, in 1652, when the well known Peter Stuyvessant was still the governor of the colony.
Jan Dorlant took up residence in the town of Brooklyn, then spelled "Breucklijn".

The Bogarts came to Adolphustown. Gilbert Bogart was not in the army & had to file a claim before one of the various commissions, in order to receive land in Canada.
Proceedings of the Loyalist Commissioners, Montreal, 1788. Claim of Gilbert Bogart, late of Orange County.

He was at Sorel in '83. Is a native of America lived at Goshen when Rebellion broke out. Never joined the Rebels. Came to New York in 1777. Continued at New York. Served in the Engineer's Department.
He sometimes went out as a guide, particularly when Major Blowzett, a Rebel Major, was taken. Continued at New York until evacuation. Now lives at Bay of Quinty.
